

I was recently informed that Sinclair Broadcasting has decided to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary shortly before the November elections.

This company uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

I realize people on both sides of the political fence have very strong feelings about the outcome of this election but I feel running a documentary such as this so close to our elections could only have one possible purpose, to sway voters.

Please do not allow them to do this, or if you do, please run a counter opinion and air pro-Kerry documentary "Going Upriver" shortly after.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you.
